BACH Merlot

History:

Masía Bach was founded at the beginning of last century by the brothers and textile manufacturers Pere and Ramón Bach. They wanted to combine the best cotton making tradition with winemaking, and gave the name of their prime cotton "Extrísimo" to the premium vineyards that produce Masía Bach wines.

Wine growing region:

D.O. Penedès

Grape varieties:

Merlot Cabernet sauvignon

Wine tasting notes:

Colour: Brilliance and clarity. Intense garnet - cherry colour cherry colour.

Nose: Strong varietal aroma: black fruits (blackcurrants, blackberries) with underlying spicy (black pepper, liquorice) and balsamic notes (mint) and pleasant toasty (mint) and pleasant toasty hints.

Mouthfeel: Full body with generous aromas, vigorous tannins and an elegant long finish. This wine will mature favourably in bottles if kept under the right conditions.

The winemaker's advice:

This wine will reach its premium consumption time during the first year and will keep well for another year.

Food matching:

An ideal accompaniment for a variety of dishes, from cold meats, rice dishes, pastas as well as fleshy fish such as monkfish, cod, tuna and white meats.