

BACH

BACH VIÑA EXTRÍSIMA ROSADO

Masia Bach was built in 1918 by Pere and Ramón Bach, two brothers who came to the Penedès region with the romantic idea of implementing an agriculture that combined aesthetics with work, the rhetoric of architecture with a distinguished wine, Bach.

Winegrowing region

D.O. Catalonia

Varietals

Cabernet Sauvignon
Merlot
Tempranillo

Wine tasting notes

Aspect: an intense brilliant raspberry colour.

Nose: intense aroma of red fruits and apricot over a background of acid caramel.

Mouthfeel: rich, with a great deal of intensity, freshness with flavours of strawberry and raspberry.

Wine maker's advice

This wine will reach its optimum consumption time during the first year and will keep well for another year. Keep in a dry place away from direct sunlight.

Food matching

An ideal matching with a variety of dishes including cold meats, rice dishes, pastas, pizzas as well as fish such as monkfish, cod, tuna and white meats.