

BACH

BACH VIÑA EXTRISIMA TINTO

Masia Bach was founded at the beginning of last century by the brothers and textile manufacturers Pere and Ramón Bach. They wanted to link the best cotton making tradition to winegrowing and winemaking, and gave the name of their prime cotton “Extrísimo” to the premium wines of Masia Bach.

Winegrowing region

D.O. Catalonia

Varietals

Cabernet
Merlot
Tempranillo

Wine tasting notes

Aspect: Deep cherry red with ruby and crystal hues.

Nose: A wide range of fruit (red berries, plums), balsamic and spicy notes and hints of cedar.

Mouth: Supple, enveloping entry, with pleasant notes of candied fruit. Well-balanced and warm, with soft tannins and good persistence.

Winemaker's advice

We recommend its consumption during the post-harvest year.

Food matching

This highly versatile wine pairs well with a great variety of dishes: stewed and grilled vegetables and meats, pasta, fleshy oily fish such as cod and tuna with sauce accompaniments, rice dishes with meat, sautéed or casseroleed mushrooms, cold meats and semi-cured cheeses.